

SAFETY ONLY TAKES A MINUTE

Have you ever considered what would happen to your family if you were injured at work?

We Have.

“Safety is about protecting each other”

At Innovator Industrial Services, we have asked ourselves... “Why do we worksafe?”

Working safely is our first priority at Innovator. Everything we do as a company revolves around the concept of providing a safe work environment for both our staff and clients. This is why we expect every employee to actively participate in our safety program, as we have taken actions to ensure safe and efficient work operations. Participation in our program will minimize exposure to personal hazards and provide a safe work place for all.

Family is of the utmost importance at Innovator Industrial Services, what better way than to showcase this by creating a campaign including our families.
